Highways Dangerously Slippery

Rain forged a freezing link between travel and potential tragedy last night as Monroe county highways threw up their own icy danger signs.

FIRST PRIZE OF $25 was awarded to Raymond W. Roberts, 819 Scott St., Stroudsburg by a panel of expert judges for this entry in The Daily Record's Amateur Photo Contest. There were 517 photographs submitted. Mr. Roberts called his entry "Tired Soldier". Other winning photos on Pages 7 and 2.

Connecting Link With New Bridge At Gap Included

Four or five corps of engineers and surveyors of Pennsylvania Department of Highways are scheduled to invade Monroe county shortly after January 1 to rush work on a new, broad highway connecting link with the new bridge at Delaware Water Gap and re-location of State roads around the $33,000,000 Signal Corps depot.

New Storms Batter Much Of Nation

(By the Associated Press) Nature dumped a new big dose of weather misery on the storm-battered northern two-thirds of the nation yesterday.

Ice storms crippled transportation in part of the Midwest and East.

In some of the higher elevations, the rain froze as it hit the ground. That created dangerous conditions underfoot.

Red Cross Visits To POWs Asked

Tokyo, Friday, (AP)—Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway today asked North Korean Premier Kim Il Sung to allow International Red Cross representatives to visit Red prisoners of war camps.

The dead girl's parents, Martin and Mary Jenkins Rinker, operate the Reeders Inn. Betty Slutter frequently helped out by caring for Sylvia while Mrs. Rinker was busy at the inn.

Pfc. Evan Chaplain of the Brodheads State police said the two girls had been coasting down the hill for some time before the accident occurred at 7:45 p. m.

Even worse in some respects was the situation that was encountered in the Stroudsburg and other points where the rain covered the snow-packed streets and prevented cars—even those with chains on—to move up or down hills with any degree of safety.

Extreme care with which the pictures were judged is demonstrated by the fact that judges studied and re-studied the photos over a period of time which concluded late Wednesday night.

The request was made in a broadcast to the Reds beginning at 2 p. m. (midnight, EST, Thursday).

Sylvia was sitting on the front of the sled with Betty kneeling behind her and guiding their course.

Edward Smith, Henryville RD 1, had been in the inn inquiring about his father. He left, got into his car, and started to drive out of the inn's parking lot. With him were his son, Fred, 15; John Miller, 58, Stroudsburg RD 3; and Miller's son, Richard, 14.

Allies Seek To Untangle Truce Talks

Munsan, Korea, Friday (AP)—Allied staff officers worked doggedly today for a break in the stalled Korean truce talks which would pave the way to armistice and release of thousands of Allied prisoners now in Communist camps.

Police said Smith took both girls into his auto, sped them to Dr. Edward T. Horn at Tannersville. Dr. Horn in turn drove the girls to the hospital.

The legislation would require State, county and municipal workers, to take an oath that they are not subversives nor members of subversive organizations.

The exchange of prisoners and details of delivery to their own lines remain to be worked out in the truce talks. The Allied subcommittee on prisoners still was analyzing the Communist list of 11,559 U. N. prisoners. It planned no more meetings with the Reds until this job was done.

The subcommittee handling this problem turned it over to lower rank officers and cancelled a scheduled meeting this afternoon to give the staff officers more time on the matter.

Astoria, Ore., (AP)—Flames swept the Danish ship Erria at the mouth of the Columbia river yesterday, and 11 persons were feared dead.

They dunked the package in a pool of water, submerged it in the nearby Hudson river and even soaked it in oil.

The staff officers themselves requested the postponement of the subcommittee meeting.

The flames spread rapidly, and only the nearness of a Coast Guard station prevented the death toll from mounting high. The Coast Guardsmen were less than a mile away, and they directed the rescue of 103 of the 114 aboard.

The other 11—three crewman and eight passengers—were feared drowned or trapped aboard the 460-foot vessel.

Council Okays Use Of Police At Sled Course

An appeal to borough council by Stroudsburg Parent Teachers association for guards at intersections of Scott and Thomas Sts. with the N. Eighth St. Winter coasting "slot" yesterday was immediately fulfilled.

A councilmanic telephone relay swiftly approved the plan of having special police at the two intersections from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m. and 6 p. m. to 9 p. m. starting today.

Chief Burgess Hal H. Harris, who designated the street a coasting area at the request of PTA, will confer this morning with Chief of Police James F. McConnell on assignment of police guards to provide a traffic safety control at the two intersections with N. Eighth St.

The Sarah St. intersection will not be guarded, meaning coasting will end there. Borough officials will cinder N. Eighth St. near this intersection to halt coasters before they reach this heavily traveled intersection.

Council advised Borough Secretary Harold E. Snyder of the details of the plan for the purpose of making the matter official and authorizing expenditures for special police work at the coasting sector.

The council agreed to carry on the project for the duration of the holiday vacation period at hours listed above, and later as long as appropriate conditions prevail at hours suitable to school hours when studies resume after the vacation.

PP&L Argues For Rate Hike To 2,416 Users

Harrisburg (AP)—A proposed $2-730,000 rate increase to industrial-commercial customers of the Pennsylvania Power & Light Co. is needed to offset new expenses, the Public Utility commission was told yesterday.

Arguing for an increase the PUC suspended until next May 13, a power company official claimed a revenue increase is necessary because the firm must show itself in the "best possible financial condition to compete with other firms in the money market."

A. D. Root, Catasauque, vice president and treasurer of PP&L, told the PUC the company is borrowing substantial sums of money to finance a $228 million dollar 10-year construction program started in 1946.

PP&L sought a $3,858,000 increase last Sept. 12. A new fuel adjustment clause, however, would reduce that figure by $1,128,000 annually, the utility said. Some 2,416 customers would be affected.

Coolbaugh Officials Protest Seizure Of Land

Loss Of Taxes Chief Reason For Complaint

Tobyhanna—Coolbaugh Township officials, already harassed by lack of taxation income because over 50 per cent of the township land is free of taxes, are protesting the Department of Forests and Waters move to add another 55 acres of seated land to department-owned 8,000 acres near No. 2 ice dam.

"We feel the Department of Forests and Waters already has sufficient land for whatever park development program they contemplate in the 8,000 acres around No. 2 dam," Irvin C. Foster, member of the board of supervisors said last night.

"Taking the additional 55 acres of land, all of which have dwellings and all of which provide taxes for operation of the township, not to forget our school district, just doesn't seem to make sense," the official emphasized.

It is understood that school district authorities, while not yet recording official action at a meeting, have discussed the proposal of the department to take the property by right of eminent domain and are opposed to loss of real estate on which they collect taxes.

The Coolbaugh Township school tax is already at the maximum of 35 mills.

Land which the department proposes to take is along Route 490 between the Signal Corps Depot development and Ice Dam 2 which the department recently rehabilitated through a General State Authority project.

Mr. Foster pointed out that in addition to the departments 8,000 acres, formerly part of the old Tobyhanna Military Reservation, there is the Signal Corps Depot, Game Commission lands on the South side of Route 611, also formerly part of the old military reservation; the Mt. Pocono Airport, various lands owned by religious and, or charitable institutions in the township which are all free of taxes.

A consequent lack of taxation equity exists for township and school operations, officials said.

This unfavorable economic situation is also a prominent factor in the hopes of the supervisors and their planning commission to carry out their New Town Development project to provide homes for the 5,000 persons who are expected to work at the $33,000,000 Signal Corps Depot when it is completed, Mr. Foster noted.

While steps are being taken to meet this unfavorable tax income problem as its affects the New Town Development project—they involve favorable attempts to attract private capital for the housing project. Coolbaugh Township officials feel they should hold whatever real estate is taxable.

Once the lands of Augusta Savereool, Martin Coan and Peter Lista, amounting to about 55 acres, are taken by the state department, they become free of taxes which school and township authorities now levy, officials emphasized.

Some contacts have already been made with Secretary of Forests and Waters Milo F. Draemel and other avenues of approaches are to be used by officials with their protests.

Reports indicate the department wants the 55 acres as a "buffer" zone next to their park development to thwart commercial development near the park.

Truman's Foreign Policy Assailed

Washington (AP) House Republican leader Joseph W. Martin Jr. (Mass.), and Rep. Leonard W. Hall (R-NY) returned yesterday from a trip around the world accusing the Truman administration of "short sightedness" in its foreign relations.

In a joint statement at the end of their 43-day journey, the two Republican lawmakers declared the way to stop Communism in Asia is to "fully support the anti-Communist Chinese and anti-Communist guerrillas of China, and to help Japan re-arm."

Legislative Conferees Agree To $672 Million Spending Bill

Harrisburg, (AP)—The State's big spending bill—general fund appropriations for the next two years—won approval in the form of a compromise yesterday.

A House-Senate conference committee will submit to their respective chambers a measure calling for expenditures of $672,788,795 in general tax money next biennium.

Waste, Graft Charged In Aid Program

Washington (AP)—Senator Ellender (D-La.) charged yesterday that "scandalous" waste and graft are sapping the multi-billion-dollar European aid program and that some top American officials abroad are "living like princes."

Asked if he plans to air his accusations when Congress returns in January, Ellender told newsmen:

"You're damn right. You're going to hear the damndest scandals in the spending of all that money."

He said he will demand that Congress attach strings to further economic aid to Western Europe.

Informed of Ellender's blast, Mutual Security Director W. Averell Harriman, in charge of the aid program, contended that the United States is giving its European Allies "relatively small sums in terms of mutual security," and he declared:

"We are not throwing money away."

Ellender called a news conference on capital hill to voice his charges on returning from a trip to Europe.

So angry that his voice shook, the Louisiana senator bitterly accused France of "milking" the aid-to-Europe program. The French are begging for American help, he said, while their industrial production is soaring higher than before World War Two.

Ellender said he found John J. McCloy, U. S. high commissioner in Western Germany, and members of his staff living "like princes" at the expense of U. S. taxpayers.

Deputies Boycott Iran Parliament

Tehran, Iran (AP)—A boycott by pro-government deputies prevented the Majlis from mustering a quorum yesterday and thereby stalled off fresh attacks by opposition deputies who are on a sit-down strike in the parliament building.

A bloc of 30 or 40 deputies who support Premier Mohammed Mossadeq stayed away from the Majlis, the lower house of parliament. So attendance fell below the required two-thirds of the 88 deputies now in Tehran.

Soviet Bloc Suffers Two Major Defeats

Paris (AP)—The United Nations handed two defeats to the Soviet bloc yesterday. Greece defeated White Russia for a seat in the U. N. Security Council. And over bitter Russian protests the General Assembly named a five-nation commission to investigate the possibility of free all-German elections.

Victory for Greece came in a record-breaking 19th ballot in the assembly.

This gave the United States one of its hardest-won victories in a contest which split London and Washington temporarily and provoked screams of protest from Moscow.

The final vote was 39 for Greece to 16 for White Russia. Four countries abstained and South Africa was absent. This made the total votes cast 55. The required two-thirds majority was 37, giving Greece two more than necessary.

The ballot was secret but there were well-informed reports that Britain finally came around on the last few ballots to vote for Greece so she could get the two-thirds majority.

Immediately after the Security Council vote, the assembly administered another defeat to the Soviet bloc. It created a five-nation commission with instructions to inquire into the possibility of holding free elections in all of Germany. The Soviet bloc denounced the commission in advance and made it clear the group would not be admitted to East Germany.

The vote on the German commission was 45 to 6 with 8 abstentions.

The snake-killing secretary bird often will soar high into the air, carrying its prey with it, then drop it on the hard ground, ending the battle.

Outlook For More Meat At Lower Prices Dashed With Signs Of Smaller Pig Crop

Washington, (AP)—The government yesterday forecast a 9 per cent reduction in next spring's pig crop, virtually dashing previous hopes of a larger supply of meats in butcher shops next year.

It also may mean noticeably higher meat prices, on the average. A larger quantity of beef is expected, but it will be offset by a reduction in pork if farmers carry out present hog production plans.

This year's meat supply has been estimated at an average of about 141 pounds for each person. Officials had hoped for an average of around 145 pounds next year.

The Agriculture department said a postal survey of 134,000 representative farmers indicated a 1952 spring pig crop of 56,500,000 head compared with 61,957,000 last spring and 55,407,000 for the ten year (1940-49) spring crop average.

The spring crop will move to slaughter markets next fall and winter.

Responsibility for the prospective reduction in pig production rests largely with a dwindling supply of corn and other livestock feeds. Prices of corn have advanced to the point where many farmers see little money in feeding it to hogs.

For the past two years the nation has been using grains at a faster rate than it has produced them, largely because of unfavorable weather. The deficit has been taken from reserves accumulated from big crops in 1948 and 1949—a practice which will have to be continued at least until next year's crops are harvested. The department also reported the 1951 fall pig crop at 40,182,000 head. While slightly larger than the 1950 fall crop of 39,182,000 head, it was smaller than the 42 million head forecast by the department last summer when hog and corn prices offered a more favorable incentive for pork production. The fall crop will go to slaughter next spring and summer.

Governor May Name Draemel

Harrisburg, (AP)—Chairman Edward B. Watson (R-Bucks) of the Senate Executive Nominations committee disclosed last night Gov. John S. Fine is seeking an 11th hour Senate confirmation of Milo F. Draemel as Forests and Waters secretary.

Watson said, however, he did not know what his committee would do about Fine's latest request.

Draemel's name was submitted to the Senate last January along with the remainder of Fine's cabinet.

At that time, the Senate refused to take action on both Draemel and Charles J. Margiotti who had been appointed for a full term as attorney general.

Margiotti later resigned and he was succeeded by Robert E. Woodside, Jr., former Dauphin county judge. Woodside and the other cabinet members were confirmed except for Draemel.

Sen. John H. Dent, Democratic floor leader, who had previously opposed Draemel's nomination, said his minority colleagues were undecided about what to do if Draemel's name is re-submitted.

Draemel was first appointed to the Forests and Waters department under former Gov. James H. Duff.

Both bus lines which serve the Monroe county area said their companies would supplement the regular schedule of buses to and from the Stroudsburgs as "the need arises." Bus lines have sufficient lines on charter available to meet "any demand" according to local officials.

Greyhound lines tentatively plan to have three extra buses operating to New York City today, tomorrow and Sunday with one extra bus scheduled on the northbound routes. No extra buses are scheduled for Philadelphia from here.

Reeders Girl Fatally Hurt When Sled Runs Into Auto

At the hospital the critically hurt child was treated by Dr. Evan Reese. Hospital authorities said she revived somewhat, and about 11 p. m. seemed "a little better."

As the night drew on, however, internal bleeding and her other injuries took their fatal toll.

The body was released to Gantzhorn funeral home, Tannersville.

Services will be at 11 a. m. tomorrow at Our Lady of Victory chapel in Tannersville, with Rev. John Ferguson officiating and burial at Appenzell cemetery.

Friends may pay respects from 7 to 9 p. m. today at the inn. A rosary will be said at 8:15 tonight.

Surviving the child are her mother, father and sister, Adele Stright, New York City.

The child's death was the only serious county accident attributed to the weather since the first fall of snow a week ago. Police up to last night had reported but one minor collision of autos, and there had been no reports of injuries caused by falls.

Yesterday afternoon at the radio station in Stroudsburg, the usual pre-Christmas readings of local children's letters to Santa Claus was held over the air at 4 p. m.

By grim irony, Sylvia Rinker's letter, postmarked Dec. 9, was among them.

"Dear Santa Claus," it began. "I am five years old. My name is Sylvia Rinker. For Christmas I would like a bony braide doll, a set of dishes, an icebox. Please don't forget my friend in Reeders and my sisters, my mommy and daddy to."

"Sincerely yours, Sylvia Rinker."

Mount Pocono C. Of C. To Stage Party

Mount Pocono — The annual community Christmas party sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce here will be staged starting at 2 p. m. Saturday with most of the ceremonies held inside the Fire hall.

Over 100 persons are expected to attend and arrangements are complete to handle that volume of people.

Committees have again arranged for a large community Christmas tree which is located in front of the Casino Theater on the main street of this borough.

Chamber of Commerce officials emphasized the party is for children of the area.

Santa Claus will make his appearance at the Fire hall at 2 p. m. and will participate in a program, including presentation of gifts, lasting until 3 p. m.

A movie, "The Christmas Story," will be shown shortly after 3 p. m. This picture was selected because of its appeal to adults as well as children.

Berna Cramer, president of the Chamber of Commerce, appointed committees which are handling all phases of the party.

Pocono Mountains Fire Co., donated the use of their fire hall so youngsters can participate in the warmth and protection of the big building.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

Well, out they came, weather or not. The Gardeners, no doubt, would have felt a little better about it if they could have worn their gardening clothes instead of their Christmas best for the Garden club's Christmas party.

Only one casualty and that was Mrs. Claude Cramer's flower arrangement for the exhibit table — which she dropped on the way to the meeting.

But the members could ignore their scattered bonnets and rejoice in the new ideas they had under them — how to make a lampshade from a peanut and pipe cleaners — how to make wooden candlesticks from old chair legs — how to use tin can tops painted gold to spark a Christmas arrangement.

Well, you might expect the gardeners to turn out in the weather — but the surprise was the elderly guests at the Business and Professional Woman's club dinner party. On a night when many a brave man quailed at the thought of going out — there they were.

Business Women Entertain Elderly Guests At Dinner

Snow, freezing rain and icy roads failed to daunt the elderly women who were the guests of the Business and Professional Women's club at their Christmas meeting last night. They were out in force in one of the largest meetings of the club year.

Miss Helen Kulp, president, presided at the meeting which followed the dinner—poinsettia plants and birch logs holding red candles decorated the tables, and the program opened with the invocation given by Mrs. Elizabeth Martin.

Group singing of Christmas carols was followed by the presentation of an orchid to the oldest guest present, who last night was Mrs. Carrie Banks, 86 and a half years old.

The madrigal chorus of Stroudsburg High school, directed by Numa Snyder, presented two groups of Christmas Carols, and Mrs. Sumner Bossier gave two dramatic Christmas readings.

Santa Claus appeared to the jingle of sleigh-bells, and calling each of the guests by name presented them with a gift. Each guest also received one of the poinsettia plants which decorated the tables.

In closing the meeting, Miss Kulp announced an interclub meeting on the March of Dimes at the Americus Hotel, Allentown on January 16. Since the Business and Professional Woman's club is sponsoring the Mother's March of Dimes, Miss Kulp asked that as many members as possible attend the meeting.

The Business and Professional Woman's club itself received a gift last night when one of their guests presented them with $10 to be used for their Home for the Aged Ill fund.

Women Of Moose Supper Party

The Women of the Moose held a covered dish supper after their business meeting on Wednesday night at the Moose hall in East Stroudsburg. Violet Palmer, Junior regent, presided at the meeting.

A by-laws committee was appointed with Mrs. Edward Knob, chairman; Mrs. Mary Katz, Mrs. June Price, Mrs. Violet Palmer and Mrs. Helen Wagner.

A gift exchange, music, and a miniature Christmas tree and individual candles in red and green at each place marked the Christmas party.

Grandmother Entertains At Birthday Party

Miss Doris Bowman and Ronald E. Smith celebrated their birthdays on Saturday at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. Charles W. Smith, of Penn St., East Stroudsburg.

Smith.

Pinafore Rehearsals During Holiday

Rehearsals for the Gilbert and Sullivan Operetta, HMS Pinafore, which will be given by the Community Chorus in February for the benefit of the General Hospital give promise of an excellent production.

However, during the next two weeks the rehearsals will be held on Wednesday nights, December 26 and January 2, rather than the regular Monday nights because of the holidays.

Robert Hilton had been directing the chorus until his illness prevented further activities. A new director will take over at these coming rehearsals.

Any persons, not members of the chorus, who are willing to help are cordially invited to come out for practice at the YMCA at 7:30 on the above-mentioned dates. Voices in the alto and baritone sections are particularly needed.

Christmas Arrangements At Monroe Garden Club Meeting

Christmas in decorations, music and refreshments marked the meeting of the Monroe County Garden club yesterday afternoon at the YMCA in spite of the weather.

The meeting rooms at the Y had been decorated with a holly tree brightened with red berries and small gaily-wrapped Christmas parcels instead of the traditional decorations. Mrs. Robert Miller and Mrs. Melvin Fetterhoff were in charge of decorations.

Adding to the Christmas feeling was the bulletin board prepared by Mrs. Ralph Mook and Mrs. Elwood Grant, where the within the outline of a Christmas tree were specimens of all the flowers which the Wild Flower study group have worked with this year. Red ribbons identified each plant. They had been collected for the committee by Russell Harmon.

Also brightening the meeting room were the exhibits, arranged by Mrs. Bernard Peters. Mrs. Roy Houser used candlesticks and chair boys on a gold cloth for her arrangements; Mrs. David Shiffer had arranged an old-fashioned candlestick with holly and a red candle; Mrs. Robert Miller had arranged a winter scene with snow covered twigs, and two tiny deer reflected in a woodland lake surrounded by yew, as well as a composition in gold with golden birds.

In a mantle arrangement, Mrs. Elwood Grant had used dried material in a wreath with sumak, teal, seed pods and pine cones, and a root shaped like an angel, as well as a centerpiece of white candles and holly.

Mrs. Frank Stackhouse used an old-fashioned lantern with greens in one arrangement, and in another a lampshade, made from a peanut and pipe cleaners, lighting the candle held by a snowman. Mrs. A. Starr Phelps had arranged a table centerpiece; and Mrs. William Hawn, using the dish which the club had given her as retiring president, had arranged it with greens and golden pine cones.

The program opened with Christmas music presented by a Garden Club sextette which included Mrs. William Hawn, Mrs. Elwood Grant, Mrs. George Rung, Mrs. Bernard Peters, Mrs. Ralph Mook, and Mrs. David Shiffer.

Mrs. Claude Cramer presented a reading of "Christmas Evergreens and Traditions." Mrs. Edward Knob, conservation chairman, urged members to keep the bird feeders filled. She reported 12 variety of birds feeding at her station, including eight cardinals at one time.

Following the program garden gifts were exchanged, and a sunshine basket was filled by the members for Mrs. Theodore Vail, who had given them their Christmas tree.

Cpl. Williams Home From Korea

Cpl. James Williams, son of Clarence H. He arrived home December 1, and expects to leave the first part of January for Camp Lejeune.

It's a shame . . . but it's a standing joke here in the office. The lady can't whistle. She tries it to the tune of "Jingle Bells" . . . and to "I'll Be Home for Christmas." Only once did she hit a note, and then Betty Bartholomew looked over her shoulder to inquire, "My goodness . . . what was that, the key of C or G whiz?" It's really too bad that anyone can't whistle, when there's so very much to be whistled about. Meaning, of course, all the wonderful new merchandise that just came in wriggling under the Christmas shopping deadline. Here are just a few of the items:

In the center of the store, directly inside the entrance, Beatrice Gorgy is displaying a large table of new "all year 'round" handbags. These come in suede, faille, and broadcloth, smartly designed, and sell for $5 each. A Christmas touch may be added by putting a colorful poinsettia hanky into each purse one buys as a gift.

For those who have asked about Mrs. Stevens candies, there is a newly arrived shipment of the popular Santa Clause package. These round tins, decorated with Santa's merry face, come in one and two pound sizes at $1.25 and $2.50 respectively.

In the domestics department, Hattie Walters showed us some beautiful new Morgan Jones hotel bedspreads in a rainbow of luscious solid colors . . . cherry, yellow, gray, hunter, or what-would-you-desire? The wonderful news about these is that rayon tufts have been used on the cotton ground, to eliminate much of the lint that is such a problem to housewives.

True enough, the shopping time is scurrying by and Christmas is upon us. But don't be worried over last minute buys. There's still plenty of wonderful merchandise awaiting your approval. The important thing is to come in to Wyckoff's and KEEP YOUR EYES OPEN. Just looking isn't enough. Be sure you aren't OVER-LOOKING . . . it's so easy to do when there's so much to see!

"DEPENDABLE" MERCHANDISE AT BUDGET PRICES

Rotary Club Plays Host To 76 Youngsters

It was a toss-up yesterday whether Rotarians enjoyed themselves more than some 76 underprivileged youngsters who were their guests at the Stroudsburg Rotary club's annual Christmas party in the Penn-Stroud hotel.

Certainly the youngsters voiced their approval of the party, the large portions of turkey and trimmings, the candy, entertainment, the tree, carol singing and special features.

But the Rotarians, enjoying all of these things, caught themselves voicing pleasure at cutting the turkey on some youngster's platter and watching the reaction of kids as they ate, received their candy and presents from Santa Claus.

Tommy Cullen and his orchestra, one of the number of features arranged by Gerald P. O'Neill, Rotary program chairman yesterday, wove Christmas music and popular music well known to the youngsters in a program which included carol singing by the children and their hosts.

Bob Logan, the famed Turkey Ridge, Cherry Valley, entertainer not only found the 76 boys and girls appreciative of his magic tricks, but accepted the offers of a number of them to aid him in his entertainment.

Harry M. Albert, club song leader, directed the singing with Cullen's group as accompanist. Jess Haynes, vice president, conducted the meeting in the absence of Gerald M. Anderson, president.

Major May Adam and her Salvation Army associates selected the children who attended the Rotary party and only once, despite the excitement of the affair, did she address the children.

Les Drake, a club member and operator of Delaware Valley Transportation Co., provided free bus transportation for the kids to and from the Penn-Stroud hotel.

British Food Prices To Rise

London (AP)—Britain's housewives got the bad news yesterday that prices for two rationed foods, cheese and bacon, will go up about 12 cents a pound after Christmas.

The Food ministry said the bacon ration will also be cut from four ounces to three ounces per person a week and the candy ration slashed by half an ounce to six ounces a week.

The price of rationed cheese will go to 28 cents a pound. Bacon will average 49 cents a pound.

The new order will hit the average Briton hard because cheese and bacon are widely used to stretch out the almost non-existent meat ration.

An earthquake took an estimated 830,000 lives in Shansi province, China, Jan. 24, 1956.

Heavy Volume Of Incoming Mail Reported At Postoffices As Cancellations Pass Peak

Postal workers at U. S. post offices in both boroughs got a break yesterday as mailing declined slightly over the two preceding days.

At the Stroudsburg postoffice, Postmaster Fred Rhodes estimated cancellations totaled 45,000 yesterday as opposed to 51,000 Wednesday and an equal number on the preceding day.

Rhodes listed incoming mail as "very high in volume", especially in parcel post. Deliveries, he said, are going out "on schedule". Only rural areas, where two successive snowfalls have made some secondary roads nearly impassable, are lagging slightly behind.

On city routes two men have been assigned to each route with four routes requiring the services of three men each.

Cancellations at the East Stroudsburg postoffice yesterday totaled 35,000 compared to 46,000 on Wednesday.

The volume of incoming mail in the East borough office was also listed as "very high". Deliveries were "nearly normal".

Cramer's Five, Barber Shop Quintets Win

Cramer's Cut Rate and Frank's Barber Shop clipped the opposition in the Senior High league basketball action at the Monroe County YMCA yesterday afternoon as the circuit held its second outing of the infant season.

The first game found Cramer's five accounting for a 56-29 verdict over Trumatic Tool, while holding the upper hand in each period. The winning aggregation led 12-4 at the end of the first period and 28-18 at halftime. To make certain of victory Cramer's contingent held the upper hand in the second half, 28-11.

Wide Margin

Second game hostilities were almost an exact repeat of the bid-lifter, as the Barber Shop quintet took the measure of the Lemons, 50-25. The Lemons were sour from the very beginning, trailing 8-7 at the completion of the first eight minutes of play and 21-12 at the halfway mark.

The Barber Shop five continued to dominate the game during the final 16 minutes, holding a 9-7 edge in the third quarter and running wild in the home stretch, 20-7.

George Litts led the scoring attack for Cramer's five, with 13 tallies, while Harold Litts, with 23 counters, was the big gun for the Barber Shop contingent.

Lineups follow:

Stroudsburg-East Stroudsburg Fives Clash Tonight

Another chapter in Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg basketball will be written tonight, when the high schools from the respect boroughs clash again on the Stroudsburg hardwood. The junior varsity contingents are slated to come to blows at 7:45, with the anxiously awaited main event listed for one hour later.

Although both varsity squads have been hurt by repeated low blows from the weatherman, they will enter tonight's grind, the first of two to be played between the two foes this year, with perfect records.

Stroudsburg won a pair of contests from Bangor earlier in the month, by scores of 60-50 and 44-26. East Stroudsburg on the other hand took the measure of Nazareth, 53-25, in the only outing of the season for the Cavaliers.

East Stroudsburg has had two dates postponed by snow, while Stroudsburg has missed one contest for the same reason.

The Cavaliers will be out to break a losing streak in this long series that has now reached eight games and covered a span of four years. The last time that an East Stroudsburg team has taken the measure of Stroudsburg was back in 1946, when the purple and white clad eagles turned the trick no less than three times.

Tonight's "Battle of the Boroughs" will mark the first time that the respective coaches have faced each other. Dick Forester is at the helm of the East Stroudsburg five for the first year, while likeable Sam Russell is also enjoying his initial campaign at Stroudsburg.

Russell announced last night that his squad is hampered by minor injuries. High scoring Gene Caski is bothered by a bone bruise of the foot, while Captain Alden "Red" Fetherman and Karl Weingartner are reportedly still hampered by ankle and finger injuries respectively, which were acquired during football season. Russell was also worried over the absence of Al Adelman from school yesterday, because of illness in the family.

However, the Stroudsburg mentor announced last night that he is hopeful of starting the same lineup that has carried the victory load thus far this season. This means that Fetherman and Dave Everitt will be at the forward posts, Caski at center and Weingartner and Jack Newell at the guard positions. Adelman, if he is on hand, will be the number one substitute.

Russell added, "number 19 looks awfully big." The Stroudsburg coach had reference to Ray Steele, who will play center and act as captain tonight. "One tall man can make a lot of difference in a game of this," the Stroudsburg coach related.

On the other side of the bridge Forster put his charges through light shooting and defense drills late yesterday, as the Cavaliers wound up preparations for the big game.

Forster announced that his starting lineup would be exactly the same as the one which faced Nazareth. Jack Treddinnick and Joe Chase will hold down the forward berths, with Steele at center and Dick Newton and Paul "Candy" Miller at the guard posts. Dick Transue, John "Juice" Ernst and Dick Merring will probably handle the bulk of the relief chores.

The new East Stroudsburg mentor said last night, "the team that hustles and makes its own breaks will win the game."

Mahlon Serfass, faculty athletic manager at Stroudsburg High, last night urged everyone not holding a reserve seat ticket to arrive on the scene plenty early. The doors will be opened, at 6:30 and tickets will be sold at that time.

However, reserve seat tickets for adults are still available at several spots throughout both boroughs. Stroudsburg fans may purchase their pasteboards at Wyckoff-Sears, Flagler's Drug Store and DeVivo's Shoe Repair.

East Stroudsburg followers may pick up their tickets at the Lantz store and Kresge's Drug store. Adult tickets are selling at one dollar. Students may purchase their tickets at the respective schools today, for 35 cents.

The second Stroudsburg-East Stroudsburg encounter will be held at East Stroudsburg on Monday, February 25.

Weatherman Puts Damper On County Cage Agenda

Two Contests At Kresgeville Postponed

Snow and rain combined last night to put Monroe County basketball into even more of a muddle than it has been for the past week. Although only one court schedule was called off, it forced postponement of the contest for a month.

Stroudsburg's junior varsity had been slated to oppose a big and rugged Polk High contingent on the latter's home court last night in Kresgeville, but hazardous driving conditions forced postponement of the encounter.

A preliminary tussle between the Polk junior varsity and Stroudsburg Junior High school was also postponed.

Joe Kovarek, Stroudsburg Junior High coach, announced last night that the game has been tentatively rescheduled for Wednesday, January 30. The Stroudsburg team will also oppose Tobyhanna Township on Monday of the same week.

Streak

Inclement weather has forced postponement of at least two games last Friday and Tuesday and Thursday of this week.

The only game played last night found Chestnut Hill taking the measure of its alumni, 41-31.

Willis Dunlap, principal of Tobyhanna Township High school, made it known last night that the TTHS-Greene-Dreher-Sterling contest, postponed last Tuesday, will not be played tonight, as had been reported in some circles.

The only Monroe County league team listed for action tonight is Coolbaugh. The schedule calls for the green and white clad charges of Don Wismer to oppose the Pocono Warriors, at 7:30.

All other teams in the circuit have finished their basketball until next month.

Lloyd Triumphs Over Williams

New York, (AP) — Bobby Lloyd Wilkes-Barre, Pa., won on a technical knockout last night over Charles Williams, Newark, N. J., at 2:36 of the sixth round of the scheduled eight round main event at Sunnyside Gardens. Lloyd weighed 146, Williams, 148.

Stops Bout

Referee Jimmy Farley stopped the bout when Williams suffered a bad cut over his right eye. There were no knockdowns, but Lloyd was ahead most of the way.

NYU Captures Tenth

New York, (AP) — New York University's basketball team kept its perfect record clean last night, rolling to its tenth straight victory with an 87-78 triumph over Holy Cross to knock the Crusaders out of the unbeaten class. Manhattan upset favored North Carolina State 69-50, in the opening game of the college basketball doubleheader before 7,096 Madison Square Garden fans.

No Plans

Kuharich said he had no plans for the future. It is believed, however, he is being strongly considered for the Chicago berth and handed in his resignation here to pave the way for a possible offer from the Cardinals.

Princeton Bows, 84-62

Washington, (AP) — Georgetown University, led by Barry Sullivan's 26 point spurring, trounced Princeton last night 84-62 before 2,000 fans at McDonough Memorial gym.

Horse Racing Fans Contribute Record Total To Pari-Mutuels

New York, (AP) — Horse racing fans shoved $1,629,239,777 through the pari-mutuel windows last season, and reports from Florida and Louisiana indicate the nation's tracks can look for another big year in 1952.

In some states racing officials indicated the government drive against bookmakers had resulted in more customers visiting the tracks.

Whatever the reason, unofficial figures compiled by the Associated Press showed wagering jumped 17.01 per cent during 1951 as compared with the previous year.

The 24 states were pari-mutuel betting of the horses is legal profited to the tune of $99,927,423 — a revenue record. This was 17.63 per cent above the 1950 revenue total of $84,909,382.

Wagering increased in every one of the 24 states last season, and the nationwide attendance jumped 6.01 per cent over 1950.

Top Figure

Topped by New York's attendance of 4,386,515, the nation's tracks had 24,302,020 customers during the season, compared with 22,924,517 in 1950. In 1950, the wagering total was $1,392,032,740.

Only the boom year of 1946, and the following year showed a greater amount bet at the mutuels, in 1946 it was $1,830,287,455, and the total handle for 1947 was $1,680,815,373.

Reports from Miami's Tropical Park, and the New Orleans Fair Grounds where winter racing is flourishing show attendance some ten per cent higher than last season. Betting is up better than 30 per cent in New Orleans, and has increased about 25 per cent at Tropical, Santa Anita Park expects one of its best seasons when racing opens at the Arcadia, Calif., track December 28.

In New York, where betting was up 12 per cent over 1950, the state racing commission attributed the increase to "the spotlighting of illegal operations, accompanied by a stricter enforcement of the law, and the federal government's enactment requiring registration of professional gamblers."

In Illinois, betting was up 17 per cent, attendance jumped ten per cent, while the state collected $2,000,000 more in taxes than 1950. Some of the Illinois revenue hike was due to an added one per cent tax on pari-mutuels, begun in July.

Michigan's gross revenue was up 32.2 per cent, and new records were set in New Jersey and Ohio. Wagering at Narragansett Park and Lincoln Downs in Rhode Island hit a record $76,713,196, almost $15,000,000 more than in 1950. Much of this was attributed to the crackdown on off-course illegal bookmaking.

Sherman Theater Downs Collegians

Sherman Theater jumped off to a commanding lead in the first half at the Monroe County YMCA last night and coasted to a 44-32 victory over the Collegians in a Senior Y league tussle.

The winning aggregation ran wild in the first eight minutes to gain a 14-2 edge in the scoring and reached the halfway mark on the long end of a 26-8 count, thanks to a 12-6 advantage during the second round.

Same Story

It was the same story in the third period, as the Sherman five came back to dominate the scoring, 16-12.

Even when the Collegians fought back to grab the scoring honors in the final stanza, 12-2, the outcome of the contest was never in doubt.

Scoring honors for the game went to Miller for the winning team, with 16 tallies, while Edwards, with ten markers, was the big gun in a losing cause.

A second game between the Pocono Jets and Warriors was postponed, due to the hazardous roads between Stroudsburg and Tannersville, the home base of the Jets.

Former Football, Track Star Dies

Antioch, Calif., (AP) — Albert B. "Pecky" Sprott, 54, one of the backfield stars on University of California's "wonder" team in 1920, died of a crushed skull Wednesday.

The man who helped the Bears upset Ohio State 28-0 in the Rose Bowl January 1, 1921, struck a box car on a siding when he dived out of the path of the eastbound Santa Fe streamliner.

Hobby

Sprott had been pursuing his lunch time hobby of copying numbers of boxcars in a log book. Faulty hearing apparently made him unaware of the oncoming streamliner until the last minute.

Sprott played on the Bear football teams of 1918, 1919 and 1920 and was an 800 meter star for the United States in the 1920 Olympic games.

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

There appeared to be an air of nervous tension in both Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg yesterday afternoon, with supporters of both towns being very cautious about predicting the outcome of tonight's long awaited contest. Many people actually appear to be worried about the outcome of the game and it wasn't uncommon to hear people in one borough say that they thought the team from the other side of the bridge would walk home with all the chips. If the opinion of the man on the street means anything, tonight's encounter should be a close ball game.

Although snow conditions plague the local basketball setup, it is quite certain that it will take a real old fashioned storm to force postponement of tonight's encounter. Tickets are still available for the contest, but they will be gobbled up faster than a dollar on a Christmas shopping tour today. Although the two schools play to capacity crowds, in both football and basketball, the sale of tickets never really reaches the quick flowing stage until the same day on which the games are scheduled.

One of the oddities that will be found in the first of two games between the two rivals is the fact that the captains are the closest of friends. Ray Steele has been appointed acting captain for East Stroudsburg, while Alden "Red" Fetherman was elected floor general by his teammates for the entire season. The Steele-Fetherman friendship stems from their close association on baseball teams throughout the area and their love for the game. Both will also play a major role in victory or defeat for their respective quintets.

The crowd jamming its way into the Stroudsburg gymnasium for the game will be swelled by returning Alumni, who are either in college or the employment of Uncle Sam. Such former Stroudsburg cage performers as Gary Emanuel, Jack Harmon and Bill Shook, all of Penn State; Dick Owens, Susquehanna, and Andy Weingartner, who played both basketball and football, Williams, have returned to town for the holidays and are now preparing for the Alumni game next Thursday. It has already been mentioned that other basketball notables, like Guy "Cub" Possinger, Furman and Howard "Hoady" Marshall, of the air corps, are making the rounds of their old haunts during the holidays.

Hal Harris, Stroudsburg mayor, isn't the real St. Louis Cardinal fan he was last summer since the dismissal of Marty Marion as manager. You certainly have a lot of support along these lines Hal, because virtually everyone interested in baseball believes that Marion was given his walking papers very unjustly. Dick Emanuel, one of the closest followers of baseball in the area, is looking for another major trade before the winter months pass into history, possibly between the Yankees and As.

Tom Sommers, football and basketball star at Stroudsburg High and in later years in the independent ranks of Monroe county, is recovering from an appendectomy at the Monroe County General hospital. Tom was recently discharged from the Army, after being recalled as a reserve. Eddie Cunfer, former Stratford High grid star, was among those members of the undefeated Bloomsburg State Teachers College grid machine to win a varsity letter during the campaign just completed.

Ray Welsh, former basketball coach at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College, yesterday received a letter from Paul "Moe" Mosier, a member of the ESSC cage machine when Welsh was at the helm several seasons ago. Mosier is now head basketball and assistant football mentor at Cristobal High school, in the Panama Canal Zone. Mosier's club recently defeated Key West High, 31-27, in a basketball contest played at Cristobal. The Key West team was flown in for the game.

Key West, on another trip by air to Canal Zone, won over Cristobal in football last fall, 2-0. Next year Cristobal will make the flying trips to Key West. Mosier, who is currently in his third year at Cristobal, plays all his home basketball games on a naval station court. Mosier, in addition to coaching basketball and football, is also head track mentor at Cristobal.

The Stroudsburg faculty offense suffered a severe blow yesterday, when Joe Kovarik dislocated a shoulder while practicing. The faculty is scheduled to oppose the Old Timers prior to the Stroudsburg-Alumni game next Thursday. Yesterday's snow and last night's rain took further toll of basketball games in this area. January will feature a full schedule of games almost every day.

Hearings For Pair Of Court Scandal Figures Postponed

New York, (AP)—Hearings for the men arrested in connection with the basketball scandals were adjourned until next month by Magistrate Thomas M. McCullen Jr., in felony court yesterday.

The case of Referee Sol Levy, charged with accepting bribes to rig the scores of pro basketball games, was adjourned until January 4. Assistant District Attorney William Sirignano told the court that a grand jury investigation of the charges still was continuing. He said the grand jury probably will complete its investigation at the beginning of next month.

Another Case
The case of Daniel Lamont of Altoona, Pa., was adjourned until January 15. Sirignano said it is still under investigation by the D. A.'s office. Lamont, a 44-year old shoe manufacturer and horseman, is charged with having bribed a New York University player to shave the points on a game last New Year's Day with Cornell.

Hickman Pleased At North Squad

Miami, Fla. (AP)—Yale coach Herman Hickman got his first look at the North all-stars yesterday as the Yankees worked out for their Christmas night meeting with the South all-stars in the Orange Bowl.

Hickman sent his squad through its roughest workout to date, highlighted by a one-hour rotation scrimmage session.

Pleased
"Boy, it sure looks like this is the year for the Yankees," Hickman exclaimed after the workout. Miami's coach Andy Gustafson said, "We're stressing speed on the southern team. The boys are not giant in size so we're going to try and use deception, speed and the air lanes to win Christmas night."

Chestnuthill Takes Measure Of Alumni, 41-31

Second Period Advantage Settles Battle

Brodheadsville — Chestnuthill High school used a strong second period to defeat the Alumni and the weatherman last night, by a 41-31 score. It was the second victory in three outings for the charges of Coach Otto "Junior" Mills, who have now wound up basketball hostilities until after the first of the year.

Chestnuthill held the upper hand throughout the contest, jumping off to an 11-10 edge at the end of the first period, then put the game on ice as Bob Serfass and Gerald Meixell combined to lead the high school to a 15-2 advantage during the second eight-minute stanza. Chestnuthill was out in front at halftime, 26-12.

The Alumni showed signs of fighting back during the second half, but its slight edge in the third and fourth quarters failed to change the tide of battle and fell ten points short of tying the score.

Scoring
Chestnuthill wound up the third quarter on the short end of an 8-7 count, but held a 33-20 edge going into the final quarter. The Alumni also dominated the fourth period, 11-8, but never seriously threatened to win the contest.

Serfass and Meixell paced the winning scoring attack, each with eight points. Serfass racked up four field goals, while Meixell came through with three goals from the floor and two from the charity line.

Lloyd Brong, with 15 counters, on six doubledecker and three tosses from the charity line, was the big gun in a losing cause.

Chestnuthill returns to action on Friday, January 4, while playing host to the East Stroudsburg Warriors, on the Brodheadsville hardwood.

Shields Refuses To Name U. S. Davis Cup Team

By Gayle Talbot

Sydney, Australia, (AP)—Captain Frank Shields won't make any decision on his singles players until just before the Davis Cup tennis matches with Australia, but every sign points to veteran Ted Schroeder and net-storming Vic Seixas as the nominees for the United States.

Shields is putting both through strenuous workouts on the White City courts and both are playing beautiful, aggressive tennis.

Yesterday they tore into each other until the score reached 5-5 following service when Shields called a halt. They looked reluctant to quit.

In Running

Tony Trabert, the 20-year-old sailor from Cincinnati, presumably still is in the running for a singles post but a good guess is that the youngster, who is a sieg slower reaching the net than either Schroeder or Seixas, will be held out for doubles.

The 30-year-old Schroeder really has been going great guns of late. He is the player the Australians most fear and the consensus is that if he reaches his peak, he can defeat Frank Sedgman in their singles duel. The feeling is that if Sedgman can be beaten in at least one singles match, the Davis Cup is going to take a long ride back to the United States after the December 26-28 challenge round.

Matthews Offered Title Bout With Maxim

New York, (AP)—Harry Matthews, Seattle sensation, yesterday was offered a February 22 title bout with lightweight champion Joey Maxim, site to be determined later.

Al Weill, International Boxing club matchmaker, wired Jack Hurley, Matthews' manager, the offer after Maxim's manager, Jack Kearns, agreed to the match.

The telegram sent to Hurley at a Chicago address offered his fighter 15 per cent. It was assumed Maxim as champion would get 45 per cent.

Likely Spot

Madison Square Garden was the likely site of the title match if terms are arranged although it might be staged at the San Francisco Cow Palace.

Maxim defended his 175-pound title only once, against Bob Murphy at the Garden in August. He won the championship by knocking out Freddie Mills in London.

Illinois Keeps Rolling

Champaign, Ill. (AP)—Undeclared Illinois, flashing a smoothly rounded offense, won its fourth straight basketball game last night, defeating North Carolina 86-66.

Penn Trips Michigan

Ann Arbor, Mich. (AP)—A smooth-working Pennsylvania basketball quintet came from behind to hand Michigan a 68 to 63 defeat here last night before a small crowd of about 500.

Weather Prospects Good For Pro Tilt

Los Angeles (AP)—Bright skies and prospects of good weather for the rest of the week gave impetus yesterday to workouts of the Cleveland Browns and the Los Angeles Rams—and also seat sales for their National League championship football game Sunday.

Blackboard
Coach Paul Brown had his champion Browns assembled before the blackboard this morning, outlining strategy for the big game, and scheduled a two-hour practice in the afternoon at Pasadena City College, near which the team is stopping.

The Rams, seeking the title they failed to win in the blue ribbon battle a year ago with these same Browns, and the year before from Philadelphia, had a similar schedule mapped out.

Burr Fails In Bid For Laurels

Miami, Fla. (AP)—Jockey Charlie Burr knocked on the door of racing's Hall of Fame six times yesterday but failed to get in and join notables of the saddle who have ridden 300 or more winners a year.

Best Effort
Burr's best was in the eighth race on Tropical park's nine-race card when he brought Grand Egyptian home in third place. Grand Egyptian was the heavily-backed favorite in the field of ten.

The 17-year-old Burr, from Arkansas City, Kans., rode his first thoroughbred on September 9, 1950 at Fairmount park and, with nine racing days left in the year, should become the seventh jockey to ride 300 winners in American turf history.

238 Pints Of Blood Received

Volunteer workers collected 238 pints of blood from public-spirited Monroe county residents yesterday at the VFW home in Stroudsburg when the Wilkes-Barre "bloodmobile" unit visited there.

The 238 donors had responded to repeated pleas from members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in the Stroudsburg, who for the past four weeks have carried on an extensive campaign on behalf of the Red Cross blood bank.

Officials of the Red Cross blamed bad weather and slow traffic throughout the county for the low number of donors, pointing out that 272 "pledge cards" had been signed by residents of this area.

All though the day "bloodmobile" workers received phone calls from persons in Portland, Blainstown, Barrett township and the West End, saying that bad road conditions made travel almost impossible for them.

Most workers with the unit were happy about the results last night, however. Although the figure did not meet the 300 "desired number of donors" they seemed to feel the day had been a success "considering the circumstances".

A breakdown of workers shows that the "bloodmobile" staff itself included 12 nurses from the Wilkes-Barre center.

Local assistance came from two volunteers in the motor corps who worked a total of 12 hours; six volunteer "staff aides" who gave 33 hours; three nurse's aides, 17 hours; 14 canteen workers giving a total of 106½ hours; five grey ladies, 27 hours and nine volunteer registered nurses who assisted in the donor room and took medical histories from patients for a total of 54½ hours.

Thirty-nine volunteers from this area contributed 249½ hours of their time to the combined efforts of the Red Cross local chapter and the Wilkes-Barre center in yesterday's blood donor program.

The bloodmobile from the Wilkes-Barre center is one of a fleet of such vehicles which serve the 27 counties and 32 Red Cross chapters in this area.

Blood donated by local residents is taken to Wilkes-Barre for processing. The necessary number of pints to fill local demand is then returned to the Monroe County General hospital.

A predetermined amount of the blood taken is flown immediately to Korea for use as "whole blood" following preliminary processing at the center.

LeRoy Mikels, chairman of the local Red Cross chapter, last night commended the VFW for the "work it has done in this year's blood bank campaign."

One of the volunteer workers in yesterday's collection pointed with pride to one donor, a middle-aged woman, who fell "several days ago and broke her shoulder." The woman showed up at the Post home and waited her turn to give a pint of blood, just as her pledge card, signed before the accident occurred, had stated she would.

'Frozen' Man Is Improving

New Kensington, (AP)—Michael Varshine, 37, of nearby Springdale was reported improved yesterday but still in serious condition after he was erroneously pronounced frozen to death Monday.

Doctors at Citizens General hospital said there is hope no amputations will be necessary.

Both the coroner's office and Varshine's family were notified he was dead after he was found frozen in his car. Police rushed him to the hospital when they noted he was still breathing.

ONCE UPON A CHRISTMAS EVE

WHILE ESKI looks on in bewilderment, the child's mother now places bits of food on the branches of the Christmas tree. "This," she smiles, "should bring the little snow birds to visit your tree. Just wait and see!"

SURE ENOUGH—a flock of beautiful, white snow birds come winging to the tree and, to Eski's delight, perch on its branches. Eski shouts with joy for the birds make a very pretty picture, indeed, on Eski's little tree.

ONCE AGAIN, however, Eski is doomed to disappointment. For, the little snow birds, having eaten the last small speck of food Eski's mother had placed on the branches, promptly fly away, without a thank you!

ESKI, convinced now that the little tree will never be decorated in time for Christmas Eve, sits forlornly beside the family igloo, the tears of disappointment sparkling on the Eskimo child's cheeks. (To Be Continued)

Christmas vacation begins today for hundreds of school children throughout Monroe county. For most of them it means a twelve-day reprieve from the routine of classes and books—a routine which has been consistently broken during the past week by parties, special programs, assemblies and holiday dances.

For Stroudsburg High students the vacation begins this afternoon at "about 2" depending largely upon how long the annual Christmas program lasts. The program begins at 1:05.

East Stroudsburg High and Junior High school students will officially begin their vacation period at 2:00 this afternoon, following a special performance of the Christmas concert by the combined choruses of the two schools.

In both boroughs regular school sessions will begin again Thursday, January 3, with the first scheduled morning class period.

Regulations for the Christmas vacation are the same for elementary pupils in the East Stroudsburg school as for the high school.

Most other schools in the county begin their vacation period this afternoon and end the holiday recess on January 2 with the first regular class period.

Government Cuts Sugar Quotas To Strengthen Price

Washington, (AP)—The Agriculture department announced yesterday that 1952 sugar marketing and import quotas will be about 2.5 per cent below this year's. The cut is aimed to strengthen grower prices.

Quotas for the new year will total 7,700,000 tons, raw value, compared with 7,900,000 for 1951. The size of the quotas for the various areas entitled to share in the U. S. market will be announced steel companies are in position to pay them more. The CIO Steelworkers are threatening a strike New Year's day.

later, possibly today.

The department said grower prices are now too low to maintain domestic beet and cane sugar production.

By raising or lowering quotas, the department is in a position to influence prices. A reduction usually causes prices to advance, while an increase usually causes them to go down.
